

WATER INDICATIONS TO-DAY.
For Tennessee and the Ohio valley, cloudy weather, with frequent light rains, warmer conditions, falling barometer generally, followed by winds veering to colder northwest, and rising barometer.

DON CARLOS BURELL, of Kentucky, is tomorrow up a dark horse in the Democratic camp.

The medical association of Mississippi will meet in Vicksburg on Wednesday next, the 5th inst.

Burgess and supporters in Massachusetts are reported to have attacked themselves to Senator Edmunds.

The Savannah Recorder thinks the wealth of Georgia is not less than two hundred and fifty million dollars, if honestly given in.

EX-REPRESENTATIVE HAINES, colored, of South Carolina, says that "Bloody Shirt" Blaine is not so smart enough for the negroes of the south.

The New York Democrats will select at Syracuse two sets of delegates to the Cincinnati convention, one representing Tilden and the other Kelly.

MR. MITCHELL, contemplating reaching the north pole by a flying machine, and yet they are in Bridgeport, Connecticut, where he resides, that he is not connected.

Effect of Chinese cheap labor can be fully realized by reading our Washington dispatch. Dr. J. M. Keweenaw had at least some grounds of complaint.

It has at last dawned upon John Sherman that, notwithstanding the Republican press of Ohio for him, the Republican rank and file of that State is for Grant by a large majority.

The Boston Advertiser, after several times carefully feeling the public pulse, declares that Edmunds is only an idea, a poetic, a "culture" candidate. He is too learned, carries too much law to win.

A correspondent of the New York San predicts that Don Butler, of Massachusetts, and A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, will be the candidates of the Greenback labor party, the latter that made on the night of June in Chicago.

BLAINE expects to occupy Ohio through his friend, the governor, Charles Foster, and John Sherman expects to do the same thing through his friend, Senator-Edmunds. Meanwhile the rank and file of the party are for Grant.

"Inevitable" but it pays. Another vile scandal has been developed in Washington. A congressman and his procurer, a clerk in the executive department, are charged with raising money who sought the President for assistance.

On the Democratic State committee of Georgia only one member, and he a newspaper editor, is for Tilden for President. The others are, for Bryan; Hancock; H. Hendricks; S. Thurman; J. Justice Field; S. James; C. and P. Dredson.

The Augusta Constitutionalist is of the opinion that the nomination of Grant, the soldier and centralist, should not be met by the nomination of Foster or Bryan as the civilian and Jeffersonian Democrat. The rule of force must be confronted with the rule of law.

With the Republicans of South Carolina Grant is first choice and Blaine second. The prevailing sentiment with South Carolina Republicans is that Sherman has no following in the State at all, and withdrawing the efforts he made to capture the State by official means.

CARLY YOUNG has introduced a resolution in the house providing that every bill that goes to a committee and is not reported on shall, after seventy days, take its place on the calendar. Carlyle's idea is right. The law is now, needed legislation is often defeated by delays.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

The legislature of Georgia expresses its preference for President as follows: Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3. Total for Tilden, 79; Hancock, 11; Seymour, 10; Hendricks, 4; Bayard, 11; Sumner, 10; scattering, 3.

MR. FLETCHER, the father of the clever young author of Kismet and Mirage, is quoted as saying: "I would rather see my daughter married to an American blacksmith, possessing the attributes of a team man than any son of the British nobility lacking them." Correct.

JOHN C. BROWN
Appears before the Senate Committee on Railroads and gives a good and sufficient reason for an extension of time to the Texas and Pacific.

Railroad and Against the Proposed Forfeiture of Land Grant—Chalmers introduces a very radical measure that will satisfy both the government and roads.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The senate committee on railroads gave a hearing today to Mr. John C. Brown, of Tennessee, vice-president of the Texas Pacific railroad company, in advocacy of a pending bill to extend the time for the completion of its road. He informed the committee that it was completed to El Paso by the first of January, 1880, and when that it reached the company will have extended eight hundred and twenty miles of its line and operating the remainder of the line for a period of four years, for which it will not have received an acre of land or a dollar of money from the general government, although the government has received the benefit of the company's operations.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE NASHVILLE DOCTORS
Initiating the Severe Over a Lot of Old Trampy Taken to a City of Memphis by a Negro Family.

The State Board of Health Appointed a Committee to Investigate the Cause of the Epidemic and the Military—The Normal School.

Special to the Appeal.
NASHVILLE, April 1.—Information having been received by the board of health that a lot of household effects, etc., had been brought from Memphis two or three days ago by some negroes who located in the town, Dr. J. B. Berrien Lindsay, health officer, has been ordered to investigate the cause of the epidemic and the military.

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS
Result in a General Liberal Victory—A Gain of Twenty-Nine Seats in the Commons—The British Papers on the Situation.

A Peace Patched Up Between Russia and France, but the Hartmann Affair is far from Forgotten—A Resume of European News.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE.
ROME, April 1.—The pope has sent Mons. Colonna on an extraordinary mission to the Mexican government.

TURKEY.
SUSPICIOUS DELAY.
CONSTANTINOPLE, April 1.—The delay in regard to sentencing the assassin of the Russian colonel Comoroff causes indignation. The Russian representative has been to the Constantinople justice is not speedy done.

PERU.
CHILIAN KNOCKDOWN A TOWN.
BUENOS AIRES, March 8.—The Chilean colonel Sotomayor is bombarding Arica three hours every day of late. A part of the town is burning. It is defended by twelve thousand Peruvians, who have inflicted much injury on the Chileans.

GRANCE.
THANKS TO TURKISHMAN.
ATKIN, April 1.—King George has warmly thanked Captain Turkman, formerly of the United States, for his services in the Greek frontier question which he prepared for the consideration of the mixed commission.

BELEGIUM.
FIGHTING MINE ACCIDENT.
MONS, April 1.—An explosion of a fire-damp occurred yesterday at a colliery in Belgium. The number of lives lost is unknown, but twenty persons have already been recovered. There are now on hand and fifty persons in the hill at the time of the disaster.

GERMANY.
A PROPOSED SEPARATION.
BERLIN, April 2.—The result of the elections in Great Britain produced the most serious effect on the German government. The reports of liberal successes are exaggerated.

HEAVY FAULTS.
AT THE SEPARATION OF SETTLEMENTS TO-DAY.
Several declarations of insolvency, with liabilities amounting in all to a million mark, were announced.

SPAIN.
THE CUBAN QUESTION.
MADRID, April 1.—The government has again its intention to discuss the Cuban question at the situation of the treasury of the colony requires prompt measures. The government is now engaged in the preparation of a bill to increase the number of members of the house of commons.

EXTENT OF LIBERAL GAINS.
A STRIKE IN LIVERPOOL.
Several thousand men in the house trade of Liverpool have struck against the reduction of one-half penny an hour in wages.

A MURDERER.
Arrested in Starville, Miss. Yesterday.
The Memphis To-Day.

Special to the Appeal.
STARVILLE, April 1.—A Georgia negro murderer was arrested here a few days ago. He was charged with the murder of a white man in Georgia, and was held in custody.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life, as well as free from any of the low passions of the vulgar; a man of high character and high ability, who has been recognized as embodying the broadest statesmanship of the age.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE
H. B. Payne for President.
Editorial Appeal.—The case made above all others in the low of whose name has been presented as a suitable candidate for the Presidency is H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio. A statesman, a scholar, a sound reasoner and a profound thinker; pure in his private life,